

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of May 17, 2020

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Would you rather be an unknown major league baseball player or a famous badminton star?
 - What have you loved most about today (so far)?
 - Some people are naturally innovative (the four) while others are naturally critical (the crowd). Which of these is more natural for you?
 - These four made a decision that had a lot of “what ifs,” a lot of criticism, and required faith over fear. Can you think of anyone else in Scripture that made a decision that included similar circumstances? Can you think of a time that you made a decision with similar circumstances?
 - These men’s understanding of Who Jesus was led them to do what they did. Read Colossians 3: 1-5. What did Paul tell them in vs. 1-4 that should have motivated them to follow through with vs. 5?
 - Is there someone that you know of that is in need of Jesus? Talk about some creative ways to “get them to Him.”
 - Take some time to pray together.
