

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of May 3, 2020

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Would you rather be 3 feet tall or 8 feet tall? Why?
  - What is the craziest thing you’ve ever done?
  - Read I Kings 18:21. How would you rephrase, “How long halt ye between two opinions?”
  - Can you think of a time that you had to make this kind of commitment?
  - If you were in Elijah’s shoes and you had just soaked the altar with 12 barrels of water and had all those people watching, how would you have prayed?
  - Now, read his prayer in I Kings 18:36–37. How does his prayer differ from the one you would have prayed?
  - “Total commitment is a part of the very nature of faith.” What was one of the first things that you can remember “totally committing” to God?
  - What is an area in which you struggle totally committing to God?
  - Take some time to pray together.
