

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of June 14, 2020

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to "break the ice" and get people talking)

- Would you rather be a kid your whole life or an adult your whole life? Why?
- What "pet peeve" do you have that angers you most?
- Read Romans 12:14. Share a story about a time that you "blessed" someone that "cursed" you.
- Why is Romans 12:14-15. Why is it so hard to do these things?
- How would you summarize Romans 12:16? Remember: this verse is talking about our relationship with our "enemies."
- Read Romans 12:18. What would be some examples of times that it may not be "possible" to live peaceably?
- Compare Romans 12:19 to I Thessalonians 4:6-8. When we seek to "avenge ourselves," what does it reveal about our view of God?
- Romans 12:20-21 are tangible acts of faith. What are some creative ways that we can apply these verses?
- Are there any difficult relationships in your life right now that you would like to discuss with our group?
- Take some time to pray together.
