

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of July 19, 2020

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Would you rather always say everything on your mind or never speak again?
- We sang, “This Little Light of Mine” on Sunday. What was one of your favorite songs when you were a child?
- Have you had an opportunity to be “kind, considerate, or humble” to someone in the midst of controversy in the last week?
- Read Philippians 2:12. After hearing Sunday’s message, how would you explain “work out your own salvation” in your own words?
- Read Philippians 2:14. Explain the difference between murmuring and disputing.
- Which is more tempting for you: murmuring or disputing? Why?
- Read Philippians 2:15. How does murmuring/disputing among believers affect an unbeliever? Has someone’s murmuring/disputing ever affected your willingness to listen to their message?
- According to Philippians 2:15-18, why was Paul willing to sacrifice his life?
- How does keeping the eternal destination of those around us impact the way that we manage controversy?
- Take some time to pray together.
