

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of August 9, 2020

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Would you rather be filthy rich and live 1000 years ago or be poor but live today?
 - One study found that 96% of all families have some form of “dysfunction.” What is one dysfunctional thing about your family?
 - Read II Samuel 18:33. What are some things that David could have done differently that could have avoided the deaths of two of his sons?
 - Read Proverbs 29:15. What does this verse look like in regards to a parents discipline?
 - Read Hebrews 12:6, 10. What is the difference between discipline that is done in love and discipline that is done for a parent’s pleasure?
 - Read Ephesians 6:4 and Colossians 3:21. What are some ways that our discipline style can “provoke our children to wrath?”
 - Children need to know two things: that they are loved and the boundaries. Which of these is most difficult for you to show?
 - What is one thing about the way you discipline that is “dysfunctional?”
 - Take some time to pray together.
