

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of August 30, 2020

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Would you rather have to sew all your clothes or grow your own food?
- What is one of the wildest things that you have seen in someone’s home or in their yard?
- Read Deuteronomy 6:5-6. What are some things that your family is doing right now that demonstrate loving God like this?
- What are some things that are NOT demonstrating loving God like this?
- Read Colossians 3:22-23. What are the differences between a good worker and a godly worker? Why does this matter?
- What are some ways that we can lead children to be ‘godly’ workers?
- Read Deuteronomy 6:10-12. Why is it so easy to love the blessing more than the blesser...to “forget the Lord” while enjoying His blessings?
- What are some practical ways to teach children to be good stewards?
- Read Deuteronomy 6:13-14. What “gods of the people” do you think might be tempting to your child in the future? How can you lead them to make wise decisions when faced with those temptations?
- Take some time to pray together.
