

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of April 25, 2021

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Would you rather sing well enough to win “American Idol” or cook well enough to win “The Iron Chef?”
- If you could switch lives with someone, real or fictional, who would it be and why?
- Read Philippians 4:11-12. What is contentment? Between the weekend message and now, which areas of discontentment has God exposed in you?
- On a scale of 1-10 (1=not at all, 10=completely), how satisfied are you with your life? Why did you choose that number? What would it take to move that number up?
- In what area do you feel most content? Why is that?
- Read Philippians 4:11-12. List the things that Paul said he’d “learned” that God “instructed” him to go through. Now read Romans 8:28, and talk about a difficult time that God brought you through that helped you to “learn” that, even in those times, He was working for your good and His glory.
- Paul shares his secret to contentment in Philippians 4:12-13. Read those verses and talk about what being content in Christ looks like in daily life.
- What steps would you need to take to make Christ all you need? How can you rely on Him more this week?
- Take some time to pray together.
