

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of May 16, 2021

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- Tell us about something you have done that is “bucket list” worthy.
- Tell us about something you have not done that is on your “bucket list.”
- Do you remember a time that you started intentionally reading the Bible on a regular basis? Tell us about it. Was it hard? What did you learn?
- Read II Timothy 3:16 and talk about how the Bible is “profitable” in these areas of our lives.
- Josh said, “Our level of faith is directly related to our consumption of the Word.” Read Romans 10:17 and talk about a time in your life that required faith and you found it through the Word...or vice versa.
- Read Psalm 119:105. How have you seen this verse true in your life?
- Get real as a group. What do your Bible reading habits really look like? What’s working for you? What has not worked for you?
- Why is it so difficult for believers to spend time in the Word?
- Do you use any tools to help you in your Bible reading/study?
- Do you have a favorite verse? Share with us how it has helped you.
- Take some time to pray together.
