

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For the week of January 29, 2023

One of the best things you can do after hearing truths from the Word of God is to talk about them with others. Here are some questions to help get the conversation started. (hint: the first couple of questions are meant to “break the ice” and get people talking)

- What is the thing that most easily distracts you?
- If your friends were asked, what would they say you are most passionate about?
- Doctrine comes before doing. Learning comes before living.
Why is a healthy view of Who God is and who I am necessary in order to conquer immorality in my personal life and achieve unity in my relationships?
- Christ isn't all if we lack morality.
Would you say that you struggle more with “social sins” or “secret sins”?
How do we balance hating our sin with not allowing guilt and shame to rule and reign in our hearts?
- What are some ways that we use the, “It’s just a little poison” excuse in our lives?
- Christ isn't all if we lack unity.
Why is unity and community so important in our battle against the flesh?
- Read Col. 3:12-14 and Gal. 5:22-23.
What does it look like practically to “put these things on”?
- Share about a time when God used unity and community to help you through a battle (with either sin or circumstances.)
- Read Col. 3:17 and Rom. 6:22.
What kind of perspective do we typically have when living for ourselves?
How does our perspective change when we are living for God?
- Read Col. 3:15-17. What are some practical steps given here to help us?
- Take some time to pray together.
